2006 FSA County Committee Election

Vote and make a difference! The election of agricultural producers to Farm Service Agency (FSA) county committees is important to all farmers and ranchers. It is crucial that every eligible producer participate in these elections because FSA county committees are a direct link between the agriculture community and the USDA. Committee members deliver FSA programs at the local level. Producers who serve on committees help with the decisions necessary to administer the programs their counties offer.

A county or multi-county area serviced by the county committee is divided into three to five local administrative areas (LAA). Each LAA is represented by one member on the county committee. FSA offices will inform producers through local newspaper articles which LAA is conducting an election this year.

New uniform guidelines for county committee elections were published in the Federal Register on January 18, 2005, and are designed to increase participation by minorities and women. These guidelines help ensure that FSA county committees fairly represent the agricultural producers of a LAA, especially minorities and women. These guidelines and other election information can be obtained at www.fsa.usda.gov/pas/publications/elections/.

Producers who participate in an FSA program may be nominated for candidacy for the committee. Individuals may nominate themselves or others as a candidate. In addition, organizations representing minority and women producers may nominate candidates. The 2-page nomination form (FSA-669A) is included and must be postmarked or received by close of business on August 1, 2006, in the local FSA office holding the election.

Persons nominated should actively participate in the operation of a farm or ranch and be well qualified for committee work. A producer is eligible to be a County FSA committee member if the producer resides in the Local Administrative Area (LAA) in which the election is to be held and is eligible to vote.

Federal regulations may prohibit County FSA Committee members from holding certain positions in some farm, commodity, and political organizations if such positions pose a conflict of interest with FSA duties. The positions include functional offices such as president, vice president, secretary, or treasurer; and positions on boards or executive committees. Conflict of interest restrictions also apply to employees, operators, managers, and majority owners of tobacco warehouses. Questions concerning eligibility should be directed to the County FSA Office

A candidate has the option to request that all voted ballots for an individual county committee election be returned to the respective State Office in lieu of being returned to the county office. This request must be in writing and submitted to the local County Executive Director prior to the announced end of the nomination period.
